

Grandpa Raymond Larkin

“Where’s the peanut butter?”

Grandpa Larkin would ask that while looking in daughter Martha Shumway’s dryer.

Raymond Larkin was known as Grandpa Larkin, but he also earned the moniker “The Fernwood Flasher.” It seems he forgot his pants when visiting Fernwood Receiving.

Grandpa Larkin was assigned to social worker Roberta Walashak (played by Samantha Harper), who immediately developed a fascinated crush on the oldster. Raymond asked Robert whether M.S.W. (Master of Social Work) stood for “Mighty sweet woman.”

Grandpa entertained Roberta for a short while, but he broke that off and went back to looking for the peanut butter.

When Mary was in the mental ward of Fernwood Receiving, she met Mrs. Defarge (played by Nedra Volz) and introduced her to Grandpa Larkin. That resulted in further romantic encounters of the senior citizen kind.

Grandpa was played by Victor Kilian.
